Vacant posts in CAT

8271. SHRI KAILASH NARAIN SARANG: Will the PRIME MINISTER be pleased to state:

(a) how many posts of officers and supporting staff (Category-wise) are vacant in the Central Administrative Tribunal;

(b) how many employees are eligible for promotion to those vacant posts;

(c) how many such posts are likely to be filled up on the recommendations of the Staff Inspection Unit for the CAT Benches; and

(d) what are the reasons for the delay in filling up these posts recommended by Staff Inspection Unit, where these are to be filled up purely by promotion?

THE MINISTER OF STATE IN THE MINISTRY OF PERSONNEL, PUBLIC GRIEVANCES AND PENSIONS (MARGARET ALVA): (a) A statement showing the vacant posts in the various grades in the Central Administrative Tribunal as on 31.3.95 is placed on the Table of the House. (See below).

(b) Vacancies in the various grades are filled in accordance with the various modes of recruitment, like promotion, transfer on deputation, transfer and direct recruitment as well as the eligibilty conditions prescribed in the Recruitment Rules for these posts. Where more than on mode of recruitment is prescribed the Recruitment Roster determines the mode by which a particular vacancy has to be filled and will accordingly determine the number of vacancies to be filled by promotion.

(c) and (d) The Report of the Staff Inspection Unit which has recently been received is under consideration.
